

I believe for the safety of our country and for freedom of speech there needs to be limits on how many stations one company could own.